REVOLUTION HOUSE

THE REVOLUTION BEGINS. AUGUST 2015.

Reinterpretation Plans for Newport, RI's Oldest House Museum

The Newport Historical Society is reinterpreting its traditional house museum, the c.1697 Wanton-Lyman-Hazard House. Instead of displaying chamber pots and rope beds, the property will open its historic doors in 2015 as Revolution House, Newport's sole museum devoted to the American Revolution.

WILLIAM TROST RICHARDS
(1833-1905)

“Race the Sea, My Sons” 1876

Watercolor and gouache on paper 10 x 14 ½ inches

Signed and dated, lower left

Provenance: Family of the artist

The figures depicted on the Newport rocks in this watercolor are the artist's sons Archer W. Richards and Theodore William Richards. Theodore became a Harvard professor and the first American to receive the Nobel Prize in Chemistry.

We are actively purchasing fine American artworks from the 18th, 19th and early 20th centuries, especially works by William Trost Richards. We currently number over 120 paintings, watercolors and drawings by Richards in our extensive inventory of American art spanning three centuries.
